

VIRGINIA INITIATIVE FOR GROWTH & OPPORTUNITY
IN EACH REGION

CLIFF FLEET

President and CEO and the Colin G. and Nancy N. Campbell distinguished presidential chair of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation.

BIOGRAPHY

Cliff Fleet is president and CEO and the Colin G. and Nancy N. Campbell distinguished presidential chair of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation. A corporate executive, teacher, community volunteer, board member and consultant, he has enjoyed a broad and deep career with leadership roles across a variety of disciplines and organizational sizes. In addition to his role at Colonial Williamsburg, Fleet teaches at William & Mary, is chair of the William & Mary Foundation and co-chair of the Hampton Roads Executive Roundtable and is a board member of the Omohundro Institute and the Virginia Business Higher Education Council. Previously Fleet served as President of the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation and as President and CEO of several companies. A native of Virginia, Fleet earned four academic degrees from William & Mary, including graduate degrees in history, business administration and law.