

THE HONORABLE BRYAN SLATER

Secretary of Labor

BIOGRAPHY

Bryan Slater brings more than 20 years of experience to the Youngkin Administration with a wealth of knowledge and senior-level experience leading public, non-profit, and private sector organizations.

Bryan received his associate's degree from Ferrum College, his bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Richmond, and an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from Ferrum College. He has taken on roles large and small from campaign work to serving in senior management, operations, transformation, and administration.

In Virginia, Bryan served as Secretary of Administration for Governor James Gilmore (R-VA) and as Director of Administration for the Attorney General's Office under Attorney General James Gilmore. Most recently, Bryan served as Assistant Secretary for Administration and Management at the U.S. Department of Labor, where he drove the implementation of the departmentwide shared services consolidation initiative, and as Assistant Secretary of Administration for the U.S. Department of Transportation under President Trump. He served as the White House Liaison at the U.S. Department of Labor under President George W. Bush and as a congressional relations officer for the Department of Housing and Urban Development under President George H.W. Bush.

Bryan has served in numerous senior positions in non-profit organizations including Americans United for Life, Freedom Partners Shared Services, and Generation Opportunity in the Koch Nonprofit Network. He was also the former Executive Director of the Republican Party of Georgia and Political Director of the Republican National Committee.

Bryan is a recipient of the 2007 Innovation in Government Award from the Virginia Commonwealth University Wilder School of Government, as well as previously serving on the Board of Visitors for Virginia Commonwealth University.
