

Martha Mugler

Martha Mugler was elected to the House of Delegates in November of 2019 to represent the 91st District which encompasses Hampton, Poquoson, and parts of York County. As Delegate, she serves on the Fort Monroe Authority Board, Chesapeake Bay Restoration Fund, Virginia Initiative Growth & Opportunity in Region, Southern State Energy Board, and the Virginia Commission on Coal and Energy. Martha also serves as the Chair of the Virginia Arts Caucus and is a member of the Career & Technical Education Caucus.

Prior to being elected Delegate, Martha was elected to the Hampton School Board in 2008, where she served three terms. She served as Chairman of the Board for four years from 2012 – 2016. Martha received her BA in Communications from Radford University and is an Executive Assistant for Business Development at Old Point National Bank. She previously worked in university admissions, public, community and media relations.

Martha was a member of the Virginia School Board Association, the Council for Urban Education, the National School Board Association and the Woman's Club of Hampton, Inc. She has served as an appointed member of the Virginia School Board Association Legislative Positions Committee and is currently serving on the WHRO Hampton Roads Education Telecommunications Association, Inc. Education Advisory Committee. She is a Governor McAuliffe appointee to the Virginia 529/Able Now Board.

Martha is a member and Sunday school teacher at First Presbyterian Church and assists in serving hot lunches to children during the summer through No Kid Hungry and the USDA.

Deeply committed to children and her community, Martha has served on the boards for Downtown Hampton Child Development Center, Star Achievers Academy and the Virginia Living Museum. She is the past president of the Junior Woman's Club of Hampton, Inc. and S.P. Langley Elementary School PTA. In addition, Martha is a past member of the Junior League of Hampton Roads and served for many years as a Brownie & Girl Scout Leader. Mrs. Mugler has been recognized by the Barrett-Peake Foundation for her contributions to the Peninsula and by the Coalition for Justice for Civil Rights for outstanding service to the community.

She is the proud mother of three children, Chandler, Will & Anne-Logan and Granmommie to 4-year-old Devon and one-year-old Will. Martha is married to the Honorable Ross A. Mugler.
